16. The dwarf lemon tree, grown (A) in many areas of the world, bears fruit (B) when it is fewer than (C) six inches in high (D).

17. The (A) brain is composed of a mass of softly (B) gray matter (C) in the skull that (D) controls our intelligence.

18. Polluter (A) is a topic of such importance (B) today that even elementary school children are well informed (C) about its (D) dangers.

19. Best (A) represented in a famous oil painting (B) by da Vinci, The Last Supper it (C) is an important part of the history (D) of Christianity.

20. Together with (A) his friend Little John, Robin Hood are (B) fondly (C) remembered (D) today by millions of people.

21. In Vermont, the sap the (A) maple tree is (B) the primary (C) ingredient in (D) producing maple syrup.

22. After to have (A) won (B) the 1945 Pulitzer Prize for A Bell for Adano, John Hersey wrote a (C) nonfiction book about (D) the bombing of Japan.

23. The smallest hummingbirds beat (A) their wings 70 times (B) a second (C) and are about two inched (D) long.

24. Quality, price, and located (A) are (B) often considered to be (C) the primary concerns in buying (D) a house.

25. The name (A) "America" comes of (B) Amerigo Vespucci, who (C) was a 16th-century Italian explorer (D).