

The course introduces the student to the notions of patriotism, loyalty to the country and citizenship. It explains the importance of Jordan's location and the ethnic origins of the people . the course traces the various ancient civilizations which came into existence in the land of Jordan , the Islamic civilization in Jordan , the ottoman rule , and the emergence of the modern hashemites kingdom of Jordan . the role of the hashemites in the history in the Great Arab Revolution .the policies and achievements of the founder of modern Jordan, king Abdullah 1 , followed by king Talal , king Hussein , and finally the present king Abdullah the second . his political thought , and his policy 'jordan first ' in addition to his stand vis-2-vis the political system , starting with Al-Albait Establishment , the definition of the authoriest of the legislative , executive and legislative powers, the constitutional development , and the democratic progress (the constitution and . (the league

The Jordanian Society , its main characteristics , . problems , and social drives

The main political challenges facing Jordan , national security , economy (unemployment and poverty) , population growth strategy , and cultural . , educational , informational strategies

