

The SPRU- JSL- UK project team was commissioned in January 2003, to act as MSC student consultants for Joint Solution Ltd. the report should serve as a solid baseline for managing JSL business activities within their new (IP solutions) division and guiding future innovation - based developments. It also provides JSL with the information needed to develop a more effective set of goals and objectives for exploitation of its interest in managing intellectual property