

HE Eng. Awni Fouad Hussein Al-Masri

Qualification

1. Master's Degree in Civil Engineering, Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana, United States of America, 1961.
2. Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering, American University of Beirut (AUB), Beirut, Lebanon, 1959.

Background

1. Member of the Board of Directors of Petra Education Company (PEDC);
2. Co-founder and General Director of Arab Office for Consulting and Engineering Services (1968-present);
3. Member of the National Consultative Council/Jordan (1980-1984);
4. President of Jordanian Engineers Association (1980-1984);
5. Member of the Royal Committee of the Hashemite University (1991-1998);
6. Minister of Public Works (1980-1984);
7. Minister of Planning (1989-1990);
8. Member of Arab Arbitration Chamber for Engineering and Construction Contracts since its inception in 1993 to present and a Chairman of the Chamber (1997-2003); and
9. The Chairman of the boards of several public joint stock companies, including: Arab Potash Company, Jordan Bromine Company, Jordan Company for Dead Sea Products, National Electrical Power Company (NEPCO) and National Petroleum Company (NPC).

