

Study and Research in Germany

Overview funding activities of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) in Jordan

Study programmes and research opportunities in Germany

Via the two easy-to-use databases

- www.study-in.de for all programmes in German language (about 17.000) and
- www.daad.de/idp for all programmes in English language (about 1600)

prospective students can find a suitable programme (Bachelor, Master, PhD, Summer Schools etc.) in Germany. These two databases contain basically ALL study programmes available in Germany and not only those with DAAD funding. Scholars and scientists might refer to www.research-explorer.de, which provides information about 22.000 institutes at all German universities and non-university research institutions, searchable by geographic location, subject and other structural criteria.

DAAD Scholarships for studying and researching in Germany

The database www.funding-guide.de provides comprehensive information about scholarships and funding from DAAD (and also other organizations).

Currently (for Jordan) DAAD-funding/ full scholarships are available for the following programmes:

Master programmes

- 1. Development-Related Postgraduate Master Courses: 36 English Master programmes which are offered by several German universities. The portfolio includes mainly programmes in the fields of economic sciences, development cooperation, engineering, regional planning, agricultural and forest sciences, environmental sciences, medicine and public health, social and political sciences etc.
Application deadlines differ from programme to programme but most deadlines are between September and October. Applications have to be directed to the respective university and NOT to the DAAD. A list with all postgraduate courses as well as in-depth explanations of every single programme can be found here: www.daad.de/pgc
- 2. Public Policy and Good Governance Master Programmes (PPGG) at eight German universities (deadline currently July 31st) : A list of participating universities as well as comprehensive information can be found here: www.daad.de/ppgg
- 3. Two bicultural German-Arab Master Courses: Students will spend half of the programme at the German partner university and the other half at the Arab partner university:
 - "Economics of the Middle East (EMEA)", at the Lebanese American University Beirut (Lebanon) and the University of Marburg (Germany)
 - "Integrated Urbanism and Sustainable Design (IUSD)", at Ain Shams University Cairo, (Egypt) and Stuttgart University (Germany)

Further information on all programmes can be retrieved here: www.daad.de/bicu

Study and Research in Germany

4. Within the framework of the Transformation Partnership with Egypt the DAAD promotes the development and implementation in this German-Egyptian Master degree programme which is also open for Jordanian applicants:
 - "Joint Master in Heritage Conservation and Site Management (HCSM)", BTU Cottbus (Germany) / Helwan University (Egypt): www.tu-cottbus.de/hcsm
5. The DAAD scholarships offers four Study Scholarships programmes for foreign graduates from the artistic fields of Architektur, Performing Arts, Music, Fine Art, Film, Design/Visual Communication and Film, in order to complete a postgraduate degree leading to a final qualification, or a complementary course that does not lead to a final qualification (not an undergraduate course) at a state or state-recognised German university or in one of the appropriate study programmes at a university of applied sciences of his/her choice:
 - Study Scholarships for Foreign Graduates in the Field of Music.
 - Study Scholarships for Foreign Graduates in the Field of Architektur.
 - Study Scholarships for Foreign Graduates in the Field of the Performing Arts.
 - Study Scholarships for Foreign Graduates in the Fields of Fine Art, Film, Design/Visual Communication and Film.

The Application deadline is 31 of October.

An in-depth explanations of the programme can be found on the www.funding-guide.de

PhD Programme

General PhD-Programme. Jordanian holders of a Master's degree who want to pursue a PhD (open for ALL disciplines) can apply at the DAAD Information Center Amman every year till Sept 30th.

Summer courses and schools

Partially funded language and short courses at more the 100 German Universities: www.summerschools.de (Application is usually beginning of December).

Kindly note that DAAD does not offer any scholarships for bachelor programmes, but further information can be found via these databases: www.study-in.de or www.daad.de/idp

Please also bear in mind that there are no general tuition fees in Germany which means that Germany is not only one of the most sought after study destinations in the world but at the same time one of the cheapest ones in terms of tuition fees and living expenses. Even without a scholarship it is therefore feasible for many students from abroad to self-fund their stay.
