

Then when one reaches full maturity at age forty,
he or she can pray,
'My Lord, give me the wisdom to be grateful for the blessings You granted me and my parents;
guide me to do what pleases You
and make my offspring righteous.
For I return to You in true repentance and am among those who submit as a Muslim.'

These are the kinds of people whom We accept on the merit of their best deeds, overlooking their mistakes.
They are chosen to be among the dwellers in Paradise, for this is a true promise that God has given to them.

46:13-16

November 11

As for those who truly believe, who do good deeds, and heed what was revealed to Muhammad
as the Truth,
God will ignore their mistakes,
and remove evil from their souls.
And they will be divinely guided and receive even more peace of mind.

47:2