O people!

There has come to you [the Qur'an,]
containing commands from your Lord.
It is a cure and a healing
for your inward ills,
and gives guidance and mercy
for those who believe.

Therefore, say, 'You should be happy and rejoice
for having God's bounty and mercy, for these are much better than
all you could gain in worldly life.'

10:57-58

Surely God's friends will never be afraid,
nor will they feel sadness,
for they are believers and God-fearing.
They deserve glad tidings in this worldly life
and also in the Hereafter.
And indeed, this is the greatest achievement.
God never breaks His promise.
