The question of efficient functioning of the Jordanian banking sector and the effectiveness of the most important topics that are studied to identify the level of impact of the results of the financial crisis on this sector in light of the adoption of policies to address this crisis, the aim of this study was to investigate the effect of the financial crisis on the performance of the Jordanian banking sector in light of the adoption of policies and procedures Special to face the crisis.

The researchers following the descriptive analytical method (a survey of literature written about the crisis, in addition to addressing the financial statements published on the banking system of Jordan during the period of crisis) to address the sections of the study which consists of three sections dealing with the first of which causes of the crisis and its implications and consequences, especially those effects related to sinks World and treatment of the crisis Islamists, also deals with the methods used for the treatment of the crisis so far; addresses the second part of previous studies on the impact of the crisis on the Jordanian economy, while the third section deals with the impact of financial crisis on the banking system, the Jordanian and how to cope with the expected effects of the crisis, banks in Jordan through a review of available data for banks in Jordan, and means to tackle the financial crisis and the actions carried out by the Central Bank of Jordan to face the crisis also deals with an analysis of the financial statements published on the Jordanian economy during the crisis period to illustrate the impact, and in the end of the study proposed recommendations and references.