Guidelines for the development of a program of instruction in ESP*

Author: Nihal Ameira

22/07/2009

Abstract:

This paper outlines procedures for assessing student needs, setting achievable goals, designing a program and, selecting appropriate materials and activities ESP classroom. The project also provides suggestions for teaching the four language skills in ESP as well as grammar and study skills. The paper further presents a model of ESP testing, establishing the link among the learners’ needs, teaching and testing.